

Code of Behavior

For class sessions Jan. 13 – April 28 and travel May 12 – 25, 2010
IDS 360 Contemporary Japan & Its Roots
College of Mount Saint Joseph

I understand that when I am in the IDS 360 classes and when I am traveling, I represent my family, my college and myself. Therefore, I agree to follow at all times the code of conduct as written below.

1. I will behave respectfully towards all fellow group members and all travelers sharing our travel accommodations.
 - a. I will respect other people's time and schedules.
 - b. I will respect other people's personal space.
 - c. I will respect other people's possessions.
2. I will follow the directives of the three instructors in all classes, field trips and travel in Japan and their friends who are assisting us with our trip.
3. During our free time in Japan, I will follow all of these directives:
 - a. travel with at least two other people from our group.
 - b. get permission from two of the three instructors if I leave the group.
 - c. inform the instructors of my plans – where I will go and when I will return.
 - d. have the instructors' cell phone numbers with me and call if there is any emergency or change in my plans.
 - e. keep the itinerary booklet with me at all times.
